

- PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH -

HABS NO GA- 115

HABS

GA

159 WASH

3

- WASHINGTON GEORGIA -

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORIC AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of Georgia

Historic American Buildings Survey
Harold Bush-Brown, District Officer
Georgia School of Technology, Atlanta, Ga.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Washington, Wilkes County, Georgia

Owner: Presbyterian Church.

Date of Erection: 1825 or 1826 and 1836.

Present Condition: Good.

Materials of Construction: Brick pier foundation, wood floors, frame exterior walls, wood shingle roof. Spire and vestibule added 1836.

Additional Data: Low Doric four columned pediment front; towers in two stages with conical spire. Fanlight doorway.

This is the first and only Presbyterian Church built in Washington, Georgia. The deed to the Church lot was made July 29, 1825 by Dr. Joel Abbott to Trustees of Church.

On the fly-leaf of the first minutes are written these words, "Presbyterian Church, Washington, Georgia, 1826." The historical data obtained from Miss Minnie Stonestreet, Washington, Georgia.

Harold Bush-Brown
HAROLD BUSH-BROWN Dec 1, 1936
DISTRICT OFFICER-HABS

Rev. Dec. 7 '36 T.T.W.